

Book Advertisement

Create an advertisement to "sell" your novel to other readers!

Include

- Your name
- Book Title and Author
- A quote to make readers want to read the book
- Rating (1-5 scale)
- Price of Novel
- 50 words or less
- Color! No more than 25% of your ad can be white!
- Where to buy
- Correct grammar, spelling, punctuation, etc.
- Must be NEAT!!

Optional

- Cover of your book
- Created on a computer or hand drawn (or both)
- More than one quote
- Picture of the main characters or the main setting

DUE DATES

Assign Date - September 11
Due Date - October 9

Written Portion

- Describe the main setting of your novel (4-7 sentences)
- Describe the main theme (4-7 sentences)
- Describe ONE conflict. Answer: What is the conflict? Who is involved? How is it solved? (3 sentences)
- Describe TWO characters. In one description, you must give FOUR ways the character is like you. (4-7 sentences each)
- Describe your favorite part of the book and tell WHY it was your favorite! (5 sentences minimum)
- Support the rating on your advertisement

Examples

The examples show three hand-drawn advertisements. The first is for 'The Ghost of Crutchfield Hall' by Mary Downing Hahn, featuring a drawing of a house and a quote: 'This book is one of my favorites because it is full of mystery and suspense.' The second is for 'An Echo Through the Snow' by Andrea Thalassinos, featuring a drawing of a snowy landscape and a quote: 'She admitted that she'd never loved Jerry. When "I love you" flew out of her mouth she knew it was a lie.' The third is a smaller advertisement for 'The Ghost of Crutchfield Hall' with a drawing of a person in a dark setting and a quote: 'For a chamber saying that you are sleeping by Everget is like saying you are sleeping by to sea cab.'